“Many Lives, Many Masters” by Brian Weiss, MD

“There were indeed references to reincarnation in the Old and the New Testaments. In A.D. 325 Roman emperor Constantine the Great... had deleted biblical references to reincarnation...”

which he says were later confirmed by...

“...The Second Council of Constantinople, meeting in A.D. 553.”

It all goes by so fast, doesn't it?

One minute you're here, and in the next,
you've moved on....

And then, after a careful life review, you're gonna slap your hand on your celestial forehead, jump up and down with uproarious laughter, and say,

“Dang! My thoughts really did become the things and events of my life! And as exalted as I am here, I was there. And as easy as it is here, so could it have been there!

*“I wanna play again, I wanna go back! This time I promise not to forget. I promise I'll believe in my dreams and myself.
I'll never let go. I'll never give up. I'll keep the faith.
Really I will.”*

TOGA! TOGA! TOGA!

What, you think the Universe doesn't have toga parties?

Believe me, here it never ends!

The homecoming parties are really crazy! Old loves and friendships are rekindled and spontaneous enlightenment is passed around like, well, like you know what.

But then, there are other parties... Whooooeeee!

Real hoedowns for the most brilliant, radiant, and illuminated souls in our midst. Fearless beings willing to further the collective consciousness by delving into a kaleidoscope of emotions. Embarking upon the greatest adventure ever imagined into the sacred, hallowed jungles of time and space, where illumination is taken to dazzling new levels and salvation guaranteed, not for what they might do with their lives, but for simply seeing them through.

These, are the Bon Voyage parties!

We owe you BIG,
The Universe
